Mission Statement

The Mission of the Frazier Park PTISO is to help our incredible staff to continue to provide an enjoyable and productive learning environment for our children.

With the help of parent volunteers and our teachers, we can all work together to create wonderful memories of fun, hard work, commitment and community involvement for our children.

Being involved in our school will help teach our children pride of one self, pride of school and pride of community.

Frazier Park Elementary School P.T.S.O.

Here are some of the things the P.T.S.O. accomplished during the 2008-2009 School Year:

- ★ Jog-a-thon ,we were able to raise $186.56 per class for supplies
- ★ Pumpkin Patch and Harvest Festival
- ★ School Spirit Days each month, we handed out little prizes to the kids- lots of fun!
- ★ Attendance rewards each month, gave the students incentive to be there!
- ★ Craft Week , replaced the Secret Santa to ensure all students were able to participate
- ★ Cookie Dough Fundraiser, which was a huge success
- ★ Purchasing for the School: Included a new Laminator, 6 Computers, 11 DVD, 1 DVD/VCR Combos, 1 DVD/ VCR Recordable combo, 2 Boom Boxes, and other classroom supplies that were needed by teachers...
- ★ Smencils Fundraiser, We sold after school once a week which the kids loved
- ★ Book Fair, We were opened every day after school for a week, and we had the teachers fill wish bags with books they wanted for parents/students to purchase- Another huge success! We were also able to utilize the book fair money from last years fair and the teachers were able to buy $140 worth of books for their classrooms.
- ★ Sees Candy Fundraiser, helped raise more money for our school right before spring.
- ★ Teacher Appreciation Week, different themes of food for each day, a long with prizes for each teacher.
- ★ Yearbook, with advertising from local business, and we added personal messages from parents.
- ★ Friends of the Library, is a group we started to put the books away in the library once a week.
